

Introduction to Environmental Impact Assessment

Gerald K. Eddlemon, Martha S. Salk, and Ellen D. Smith.
Presented by Gerald K. Eddlemon

After a brief discussion of the presenters' background and their experience in environmental impact assessment (EIA), this presentation will cover the theory and philosophy of EIA, including three important principles of effective EIA: early scoping, phased planning, and proportionality.