

Community engagement is a foundational commitment for UT-Battelle, LLC, in its operation of Oak Ridge National Laboratory. The lab makes it easy to give back. From payroll deduction and employee-led fundraisers to in-kind donations and volunteer activities, ORNL staff members step up in countless ways to help their neighbors in need. Here are a few highlights from the 2024 ORNL Gives Campaign.

ORNL GIVES - EMPLOYEE-LED SUPPORT

PAYROLL DEDUCTION

$716,084.39

DIRECTORATE FUNDRAISERS

52

organizations supported

$50,000

UT-Battelle match for Hurricane Relief

215 boots & bedding donated

HURRICANE HELENE RELIEF

$91,000

employee cash donations

2 truckloads
of household goods

600 registered ORNL
employees and growing

VOLUNTEER EAST TENNESSEE

$100,000+

in volunteer value

3,340

hours donated

30,000

meals for the hungry

More than 30
bags of trash collected in Anderson and Knox County

IN-KIND SUPPORT

$31,000

Value of toys and clothing for underserved youth

250 lbs. of pet food and merchandise for elderly pet owners

UT-BATTELLE
MATCHING GIFTS FUND AND TEAM UT-BATTELLE
DONATION PLATFORM

$300,000+

from employees and UT-Battelle

82

organizations supported

ORNL GIVES 2024 TOTAL

$1,104,866